Legacy ride honors Matthew Blount

Members of Post 555 participated in the Riders' Legacy Scholarship Ride on Saturday, Sept. 21.

The ride honored post namesake Matthew Blount. It also raised money to provide college scholarships to post-9/11 veterans who died on active duty or have at least a 50-percent disability.

The ride began at Heart of Dixie Harley-Davidson in Pelham and continued to the Alabama National Cemetery in Montevallo.

Matthew's widow, Terrie, and their daughter, Audrey, attended a small ceremony at the cemetery. Together with Matthew's father, former post commander Barry Blount, they laid flowers at Matthew's grave.

The event concluded at Main Street Tavern in Montevallo, where participants gathered to share memories and enjoy fellowship. There was also a 50-50 drawing that raised additional funds.

Past commander Barry Blount and his granddaughter Audrey lay flowers at the grave of his son and her father, Matthew Blount.

Triple Nickel Riders Director Jeff Monday said the ride is an annual event to honor Blount's memory and to help provide scholarship opportunities for fellow veterans.

For God and Country!

The season has changed but our mission has not. Fall is here but things are still hot within the Triple Nickel. Hot meaning, we're still working hard and heavy in making a positive change for Veterans, their families, youth, and the community.

Let's continue to increase our Legion Family membership and renewal. I had the opportunity to meet with several of the Auxiliary Unit 555 members the last couple of weeks and am happy to share the following: Those interested in the Auxiliary Unit 555 are invited to attend the Oct. 3rd Post General Membership meeting. There will be an opportunity for those interested in learning more about the Auxiliary to use the adjacent meeting room to discuss their revitalization efforts.

The Commander's Membership Award lapel pins are in. I look forward to the opportunity to personally recognize the hard work of our recruiters during the upcoming and future Post meetings.

Our annual Thanksgiving Family Dinner is 6:00 pm on November 7th at the Pelham Civic Complex and Ice Arena banquet hall. This event is free for the American Legion Matthew Blount Post 555 (Legion Family). For the purpose of the annual Thanksgiving Dinner meal, Immediate Family is defined as "the Legion Family's member spouse and children. 2ND VICE'S CORNER

Nancy Waller
2nd Vice Commander

I had the pleasure this morning of having a tooth extracted, and am now feeling the effects of that "experience" as the feeling comes back to my mouth and face. Time to head for the bottle of Aleve. Please feel sorry for me.

We are heading for a busy, busy month in November, but not before we have one event in October. The Annual Pelham Police Department National Night Out was fun last year, so I am looking forward to another great event this year. It is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 1, 6-8 p.m. in the Publix parking lot on Huntley Parkway. Please join us at our tent along with several members of the Riders to have their great motorcycles for the visitors to see.

November has a ton of events with something for everyone. Instead of listing them all here, be sure to check the Events Schedule in the newsletter for the event, date, time, location, etc. Also, I will have information and sign-up sheets at the tables set-up around the perimeter of the meeting room at our meetings on Oct. 3 and Nov. 7, so come see me and we will get you signed-up to participate.

Our guest speaker for the Oct. 3 General Membership Meeting is confirmed and very excited about being with us to share information about ServiceDogs Alabama, and Scott Landreth will be joined by his own service dog, Rambo. I met Scott and Rambo at the Career Resource Fair several months ago and just had to ask him to come and share what he does for the community and for fellow Veterans. I hope you enjoy meeting both he and Rambo as much as I did.

If you are a new member of Post 555 and/or just hit the "young age of 55", please allow me to offer you an R.S.V.P. (Retired Seniors Volunteer Program) Volunteer Application so you can sign-up with many of our Post members to record your volunteer hours each month. Even if you only attend a meeting each month, the time counts from when you leave your home and return, so you could be adding about 2-3 hours a month to our list! I have plenty of applications so please ask for one. I will also need to make a copy of the front of your driver's license as proof of age, and I can do that right at the Pelham Senior Center for you.

I look forward to seeing your smiling faces at the Oct. 3 General Membership Meeting so please be sure to come and meet Scott and Rambo!!!!

Many thanks to the ones that have submitted their 2020 membership renewals. We are on track to meet our 100% goal by December 31, 2019 but yet still have a ways to go.

Through our first three months of the campaign, we are at 49.5%, meeting our District 23 target. I am counting on those that have not renewed already to get us to our goal. All that is needed is an average of thirty-six renewals and/or new members in each of the next three months. You can start with bringing a veteran to the October Post meeting. Contact Jerry McClain with the Membership Committee for membership materials that will help you recruit members.

You can renewal online at www.legion.org. All you need is your membership number and Credit Card or by mail your $45 check payable to "Matthew Blount Post 555" a to:

LETTER TO LEGIONNAIRES CONCERNING REVITALIZING THE POST AUXILIARY UNIT 555 BEFORE THE ANNUAL THANKSGIVING FAMILY DINNER

Dear Legionnaires and Legion Family,

Time and again it has been demonstrated that the most successful Posts are the ones who work cooperatively with their Auxiliary Units. With this in mind, our Post is very interested in reforming our Auxiliary Unit 555 as we realize the positive effect a Unit can have on a Post. We hope to build a family organization of Legion and Auxiliary members volunteering together to enable us to do more for our veterans, our youth and the community.

Do you have female family, relatives, friends, even co-workers, or spouse (male or female) who enjoy volunteering? Would they enjoy helping the Auxiliary Unit 555 in the betterment of our veterans, youth and our community? Are these women and spouses eligible for membership in the American Legion Auxiliary? If so, will you please share this information in this letter with them?

Mothers, spouses (males and females), daughters, sisters, granddaughters, great-granddaughters and grandmothers of members of The American Legion, and deceased veterans having served since 1941 (See LEGION Act). Step-relatives are also eligible. Women who of their own right are eligible for membership in The American Legion are eligible to join the American Legion Auxiliary.

There will be an informational meeting of interested women and spouses (male and female) next Post meeting Thursday, October 3, 2019.

Auxiliary representatives from Unit 555 and the Past Department Auxiliary President Gloria Haygood will be present at this meeting to provide information on programs and activities, dues, possible meeting date, officers etc. They will also be there to answer any questions you may have. There will be an opportunity to join the Auxiliary Unit 555 and renew membership on site. Auxiliary dues for seniors (18 and over) is $25 and juniors ((birth – 17) $6.

Having a strong Auxiliary Unit 555 to work closely with our Post will strengthen our commitment to this community.

Post 911 honors memory of fallen namesake

By Henry Howard

The American Legion

American Legion Post 911 in Hoover, Ala., has experienced a tenfold membership increase since it renamed itself after Ryan Winslow, who was killed in Iraq.

"We were 911 before 9/11 when the Twin Towers were hit," said Ginger Branson, commander of both Post 911 and Jefferson County for District 21. "Ryan Winslow was a Hoover boy. He is also memorialized at Hoover High School, where he was a student."

Winslow enlisted in the Marine Corps in January 2005 and completed boot camp that May. On March 25, 2006, Winslow was deployed to Iraq with the 2nd Marine Division. He was killed on April 15 when his vehicle hit an IED.

Past commander Ron Bradstreet came up with the idea to rename the post after Winslow and relocate it to Hoover. That turned out to be a jump-start for the post, which used to meet in a trailer. At that time, the post struggled with membership.

"I figured that's what we needed to do, honor a hometown hero," said Bradstreet, who is now Department of Alabama commander. "So we re-flagged here. Then we went to work on membership. We attend all the events in the city and try to be part of the community."

Bradstreet said that members draw inspiration from two special members of Post 911.

"When you are in a post meeting and his mom and dad are sitting there, you don't have to ask yourself why you are doing this," Bradstreet said. "You see them right there. Those Gold Star families don't want their loved one to be forgotten. And Ryan will never be forgotten here."

As the post grew in size it eventually received permission to use a room at Hoover Tactical Firearms to hold meetings and other small-scale events.

"The change re-ignited passions among membership," Branson explained. "What happened since then is that we went from 40 members to over 400 members."

And with that renewed passion, Post 911 members participate in various Hoover community events throughout the year, including a breast cancer awareness program at the local VA clinic and an upcoming 5K run with Team Red White and Blue.

"It doesn't hurt for The American Legion to have a face in the community," Branson said. "Everybody needs to know about The American Legion."

Chase Hersey, a post-9/11 veteran who served as a Navy corpsman, helps promote that message. He was commander at Post 107 but transferred earlier this year to Post 911 to help rev up the Riders program and their efforts to engage younger veterans.

Hersey credits Branson and Bradstreet with mentoring him. Now, he says, it's his time to give back and provide leadership at their post. "Come see what we're all about," he describes his pitch to a younger veteran. "Come to a meeting. It's not like the old days. Just come out, give it a shot and try."

Post 911 not only embraces younger veterans, he says, it encourages the implementation of new ideas.

"That's one of the reasons why I decided to come over to this post," Hersey said. "They are open to new suggestions. They are open to new ways. They want to grow and be involved in the community. They want to get younger veterans involved."

Chrystal Jones knows full well about the support that members of Post 911 can provide to younger veterans.

Jones is now a member of Post 338 in Brighton, about 20 miles away. One year when she was adjutant at Post 911, she was even further away from Hoover.

"Post members here are really dear; they really kept me grounded when I was over in Afghanistan," said Jones, who served as post adjutant during her 2009-2010 deployment with the Army Reserve. "I went through quite a lot. When events would happen, Ron Bradstreet would give me that reassurance I needed. We went through a lot of tragedies, losing one or two soldiers a day. It was some rocky times."

Jones was stationed at Bagram but traveled throughout the country. "I would check on the soldiers to make sure they had everything they needed and get them things they did need. It was a good experience."

Now she continues her service with the Legion on U.S. soil.

"The American Legion cares about veterans," Jones says. "There are a lot of organizations that say they do. But in my time in The American Legion, I have literally seen them come to aid in times of disasters, come to the aid to someone who lost everything in a fire or lost stuff in a tornado. Or set up facilities for those who are going through post-traumatic stress disorder. They just do so much more than most people are aware of like scholarships. I love the way that they are a family organization."

Therefore, if you would like to attend and sit at a reserved table for the American Legion Matthew Blount Post 555 table, please let me know no later than September 5th. Once we have a committed number, I will ask you to send a check or pay your $45 at our next gathering, and we will send in one check with a list of names for a table.

Thank you for your interest and support of National Veterans Day in Birmingham. I look forward to hearing back from you soon.
